THE NEWS DURING THE PRESIDENTIAL CAMPAIGN.

We desire to have the NEWS largely circulated during the Presidential campaign. The larger our subscription list the more effectually will we be enabled to work, and to this end we trust our friends and patrons will exert themselves somewhat in adding to our present list. The nation will in November declare for GREELY and BROWN, and it is essential that North Carolina should place herself squarely on this liberal movement—for such a consummation will we earnestly labor.

In order to place the DAILY and WEEKLY NEWS within the reach of all, we will send them for a period of four months at the following rates:

DAILY NEWS.

One copy	$ 2 25
Five copies	10 00
Ten copies	17 25

WEEKLY NEWS.

One copy,	$ 60
Five copies,	2 50
Ten copies,	4 50
Fifteen copies,	6 00
Twenty copies,	8 00
One hundred copies,	35 00

We trust our friends in the State will assist us in adding names to our list, as by a little exertion on their part we can be enabled to accomplish much good during the present campaign.

LOCAL MATTER.

E. C. WOODSON, City Editor

CHANGE OF APPOINTMENT.—In consequence of the prevalence of small-pox in Nashville, Mr. London, our elector for this District, will not fill his appointment there on the 26th inst., but will speak at Rocky Mount on that day. His other appointments in that county will be filled.

LOCAL BRIEFS.

Yesterday was quite warm.

A slight shower visited our city yesterday afternoon.

Our city is now visited by several Northern capitalists.

The Pennsylvania election is a matter of great interest in our city.

The Banner of Temperance will hereafter be called the Spirit of the Age.

Several of the lawyers from this city are in attendance on Johnston Court.

The Yarborough House is still the scene of beauty and fashion, consequently, has its attractions for young men.

Several families are quartered at the Yarborough, on their way from the mountains to their homes in the eastern portion of the State.

The contest at the "Social Club" for the championship in whist is still undecided. At the last coun,. the games were sixty-five and sixty-three.

We learn from a reliable source that there is to be a marriage in Chatham next Wednesday. The groom will be eighty-two on that day; the bride twenty the day after. Our informant states the bride is quite infatuated.

The very facetious Local of the Petersburg Index gets off the following:

"Mattress-ide—killing bugs that infest beds."

That is a very good i-de (idea.)

HERE AND THERE.—

Garnet jewelry is becoming very fashionable.

Nuts, oats, and oak-apples are worn on straw hats.

Dressmakers have gone back to the Louis Quinze costumes.

Lucca collars, cuffs, handkerchiefs, etc., are now the rage.

Pelerines and capes are daily gaining ground, and are now very popular.

Very pretty vinaigrettes, made of gold in the shape of a hunting horn, are worn slung at the belts of daughters of fashion.

Imitation jewelry is made so perfectly now-a-days, that fashionable ladies can get themselves up quite gorgeously at a very slight expense.

Ladies are once more to wear the old-fashioned high Spanish combs, either of tortoise-shell or else of gold elaborately ornamented with jewels.

Flowers are still extensively used as garniture for evening dresses, particularly fine clusters with which many airy robes of tulle appear entirely studded.

The present style of coiffure raises the hair high on the top of the head. No chignon, but an arrangement low on the neck, forming a kind of peruke.

THE METROPOLITAN HALL DISCUSSION.—H. A. London, Jr. Esq., our Elector, made a good speech for Greeley and Brown at Metropolitan Hall Monday night. He spoke one hour and ten minutes, and was listened to with much interest and frequently applauded. Mr. London dealt in facts and figures and sustained himself in a very creditable manner. Grant's gift-taking, nepotism, incompetency and neglect of duty were contrasted with Greeley's kindness of heart, integrity of of character, magnanimity to the South and his acts of generosity and moral firmness.

Mr. London, in conclusion, made some timely appeals to the young men to hold up their hands, and to bear the brunt of the fight in the pending struggle.

By announcement, Gen. Wiley D. Jones attempted a reply for one hour and a half—and such a reply. It would be a misnomer to call it at a speech. In conception, in manner and matter, as a political effort, we think it was entirely destitute of merit. Gen. Jones is not a good speaker. He ignores argument entirely and deals in clap-trap and noise. He was frequently aplauded by the negroes. He did not attempt to answer Mr. London.

In his rejoinder of twenty minutes, Mr. London used him up thoroughly—showed him that his statements were not well-founded, and his figures all wrong. Jones stated that Grant's Administration had reduced the public debt at the rate of three hundred millions of dollars per annum! Mr. London showed how ridiculous and absurd was this assertion by proving that the whole taxes for the last three years were only a little over that sum.

Gen. Jones' inaccuracy in his calculations about the public debt was in keeping with his other statements.

Gen. Jones is no match for Mr. London in debate—and it was necessary that the negroes should shout for him to make up for his lack of argument.

FASHION'S FREAKS—GLOVES—COLORS, &c.—A citizen of Raleigh, now sojourning in New York city, send us the following fashion items from that great American seat of fashion:

Long wristed gloves, considered so extravagant by the young ladies of our community, are worn altogether by ladies of fashion and as seasons wane their length increases. Those who once wore gloves fastened at the wrist by a single button now demand two, and those who formerly wore two, require an encrease in a two fold ratio. Brown and gray are the prevailing day colors. To prove this the importations of a single New York house show five thousand dozens of brown and gray kid gloves; pale lavender, pearl and chamois buff are worn with dressy carriage toilettes, and immaculate white kids appear for full evening dress.

The Maltese dress, uncommonly seen among us, is a very fashionable and graceful attire. There are various styles of this dress. Madame Demorest has christened one style, the Lucca, another, the Arabella, and another the Kellogg. The Lucca is somewhat a change from the former loose plaiting, hanging from beneath the shoulders, it is now a long overskirt caught midway the back and fastened to the right shoulder, with a splashing jet, giving it exactly the appearance of a most awful accident, reminding me very much of one which once happened to a friend of mine when stealing cherries, and coming down the tree found herself suspended in midair, having caught her dress on a limb that grew about three feet above her. I think it would be advisable if Madame Demorest would re-christen the Lucca, the hitch up, or the cherry tree grip. MISS JUNIUS.

JOHNSTON SUPERIOR COURT.—The Fall Term of Johnston Superior Court is now in session, his Honor Judge Samuel W. Watts presiding. We were present at the Court House and were pleased to meet many old friends and acquaintances on the Court green. The Court House, which is entirely too small for present purposes, was crowded the entire day to suffocation. All the cases disposed of were for bastardy, and from the large number still on the docket, they will continue till Saturday night.

The civil docket is quite small, and not a capital case is to be tried. This speaks well for the good order in old Johnston, though she did vote for Billy Smith.

We noticed in attendance upon the Court the following members of the Bar:

Hon. W. T. Dortch, Wayne; Gen. A. D. McLean, Harnett; L. Eldridge, Esq., Col. L. R. Waddell and J. H. Abell, Esq., Johnseon; Maj. A. M. Lewis, Hon. B. F. Moore, Geo. V. Strong, Esq. Gen. W. R. Cox, F. H. Busbee, Esq, and W. H. Pace, Raleigh; H. A. London, Jr., Chatham, and Mr. Spiers, of Harnett

H. A. London, Jr., the Presidential elector, addressed a very large audience on court house square, during the recess of the Court. This able young orator fully sustained his well earned reputation, and his speech had a fine and telling effect upon his audience. From what we could see and hear, old Johnston will roll up a rousing majority for Greeley in November.

We found the NEWS a general favorite in Johnston, and added many new names to our already large subscription list in the county.

WILMINGTONIANS IN OUR CITY.—We are pleased to see a large number of the clever citizens of our neighboring City of Wilmington now sojourning in Raleigh. Among them are Maj. J. A. Engelhard and lady, with their interesting "younger folks," W. H. McCrary and lady; Miss Rowe Wiggins; Mrs. Col. S. L. Fremont, daughter and son; and W. R. Kenan, Esq, all of whom have rooms at the Yarborough House.

Col. R. H. Cowan and family are the guests of Col. George V. Strong.

Gen. R. E. Colston and J. A. Byrne and lady, are at the National.

PERSONAL INTELLIGENCE.—Col A. F. Tilden & Son, Major F. W. Adams & Son, New York City, and W. F. Hargrave, Millican, Texas, are at the National Hotel.

Mr. C. Drie, the gentleman who has been preparing a bird's-eye view of Raleigh, left yesterday for Baltimore, where he lithographs his views, and expects to have them ready for distribution in about three weeks.

W. K. Barham, Esq., of Louisburg, reached the city yesterday afternoon.

Dr. W. A. B. Norcum, of Edenton, is quartered at the Yarborough.

Edward Wood, Esq., and family, are registered at the Yarborough.

PLUMMER, YOUNG & Co.—We call especial attention of the readers of the NEWS to the advertisement of this well known and enterprising Petersburg Hardware House, advertising a cooking stove for sale which combines many advantages.

These gentlemen would not recommend anything unless it was all right in every respect. The style of cooking stove advertised by them is said to excel all others, and we hope our citizens in need of such an article will give them a call.

ARRIVAL OF PRISONERS.—Sheriff W. A. Deans and Deputy Sheriff A. P. Holland, of Wayne, brought to the city yesterday James R. Bunn, white, convicted at the last term of the Superior Court for that county for arson, and Ransom Slocum, col., for forgery, and sentenced to the Penitentiary respectively for three and two years. Bunn is said to be a desperate character and righteously deserves the punishment meted out to him.

INVITATION TO ATTEND A FIREMEN'S CONVENTION.—Yesterday the Chief Engineer of the Fire Department received a communication with an invitation to be present or send a delegate to participate in the Grand Firemen's Convention held in Auburn, N. Y., October 1st and 2nd. We understand Chief Churchill is anxious to go, but as we are soon to have so many visiting firemen in our city, he cannot very well leave.

SLIM ATTENDANCE.—Where was the Greeley and Brown Club Monday night? The attendance at Metropolitan Hall was rather meagre. We saw on the speakers' stand, the pleasant countenance of President Busbee. But where was the club itself? The Era has been advertising for it, but it seems not yet found. It ought to have been out in full numbers, with banners, transparencies, &c.

ANNIVERSARY CELEBRATION.—We return the thanks of the NEWS to Messrs. Ed. Merrimon, of this city, and Arthur Frazer, for an invitation to attend the anniversary celebration of the Hesperian and Columbian Societies of Trinity College, which takes place Friday evening, October 18th 1872. We trust it may be in our power to attend.

MISS JEANIE PATTERSON.—The many friends of this accomplished young lady will be pleased to learn that she will probably be in Raleigh in a few days.

She is now in Lynchburg, and will give a series of readings in Petersburg before returning to this State.

PUBLIC SPEAKING.—H. T. Caldwell, Col. John A. Gilmer and H. A. London, Jr., will address the people of Chatham county at the following times and places:

Lockville, October 1st.
Pittsboro, " 4th.
Jonesboro, " 5th.

ROCKY MOUNT.—Mr. London speaks at Rocky Mount on the 26th inst., instead of Nashville. There are two Greeley and Brown clubs there—one composed of white and the other colored voters.

CANADIANS IN RALEIGH.—The following citizens of Canada were registered at the Yarboro' House yesterday: William Wilson, Mrs. Wilson and Wm. Ralph Bell, Ottawa; John Inksetta and George Bowman, Capetown.

ACCIDENT.—A colored child at Oberlin—Save Rent—St. Domingo, &c., &c., cut off one of its fingers yesterday and wounded another.

SPEAKING AT CAREY.—Don't forget that Henry A. London, Jr., will speak at Carey next Monday, the 30th inst.

LIFE ASSOCIATION OF AMERICA, ST. LOUIS.—A meeting of the policy-holders of the Life Association of America held at the company's rooms on the 26th August, for the purpose of considering certain proposed amendments to the charter of the association, it was the sense of the meeting that amendments be added to those proposed, and that the whole be again submitted to the members of the company at a meeting which it was recommended should be held as soon as practicable. Now, therefore, this is to give notice that a meeting of the policy-holders of the Life Association will be held at the principal office of the company in the city of St. Louis on Wednesday, the 25th day of September, inst., at 10 o'clock A. M., for the purpose of voting for or against the proposed amendments to the charter of the association, in accordance with the provisions of section 15 of an act of the general assembly of the state of Missouri, approved March 10, 1869, entitled "an act for the incorporation and regulation of Life Assurance companies."

JAMES H. BRITTON, President,
WM. HANLEY, Secretary.

GROWTH OF AN AMERICAN CITY.—The growth of Brooklyn during the last thirty years exhibits the vast population that must crowd into New York. Brooklyn is an outgrowth of the latter city, is composed of inhabitants that have been, as it were, squeezed out of it, and is a vast intumescence that is growing faster than its feeder. We talk about the increase of Baltimore, but here is a city that nearly doubles its population in ten years. Its census for the last forty years shows: In 1830, 17,060; in 1840, 67,000; in 1850, 130,000; in 1860, 260,000; in 1870, 400,000.

The city has now become so large that, like New York, it is in need of more rapid transit not only to and from New York, but also within its own limits.—Exchange.

SPECIAL NOTICES.

VALUABLE HINTS.—A regular habit of body is absolutely essential to physical health and clearness of intellect. Nor is this all. Beauty of person cannot co-exist with an unnatural condition of the bowels. A free passage of the refuse matter of the system through these natural waste pipes, is as necessary to the purity of the body as the free passage of the canal of a city through its sewers is necessary to the health of its inhabitants.

Indigestion is the primary cause of most of the diseases of the discharging organs, and one of its most common results is constipation. This complaint, besides being dangerous in itself, has many disagreeable concomitants—such as an unpleasant breath, a sallow skin, contaminating blood and bile, hemorrhoids, headache, loss of memory, and general debility.

Hostetter's Stomach Bitters removes all these evils by removing their immediate cause in the digestive organs, and regulating the action of the intestines. The combination of properties in this celebrated preparation is one of its chief merits. It is not merely a stimulant or a tonic, or an anti-bilious agent, or a nervine, or a blood depurent, or a cathartic, but all these curative elements judiciously blended in one powerful restorative. It lends activity and vigor to the inert and enervated stomach, relieves the alimentary canal of its obstructions, and gives tone to the membrane which lines it, gently stimulates the liver, braces the nerves, and cheers the animal spirits. No other remedy possesses such a variety of hygienic virtues. It is to these characteristic virtues that it owes its presence as a household medicine. Experience has proved that it is as harmless as it is efficacious, and hence it is as popular with the weaker sex as with the stronger.

Hostetter's Stomach Bitters are sold in bottles only, and the trade-mark blown in the glass and engraved on the label is the test of genuineness. Beware of counterfeits.

DR. SAGE'S CATARRH REMEDY is no Patent Medicine humbug, gotten up to dupe the ignorant and credulous, but is a perfect Specific for Nasal Catarrh, "Cold in the head," and kindred diseases.

A GLORIOUS RECORD.—Twelve years ago a few modest lines in a New York Journal invited public attention to a new Vegetable Restorative, and solicited a trial of its merits as a remedy for indigestion, billiousness, fever and ague, debility, nervous disorders, rheumatism, and all complaints requiring invigorating and regulating treatment. In this quiet, unpretentious way, PLANTATION BITTERS was introduced to the world. It was a success from the beginning. All that was claimed for it as a tonic, a corrective and antidote to malarious fever, was found to be strictly true. Within five years the annual sales of this article amounted to over One Million of Bottles. A few years more and the demand had swelled to five millions. The annual consumption of the bitters has now reached the almost incredible aggregate of six millions of bottles, and for every bottle sold a copy of the "Illustrated Medical Annual," published by the proprietors, at a cost of $150,000, is given away.

THE "DOG DAYS" AND THEIR DANGER.—At this season of the year the blood is apt to become impure, the appetite poor, the skin sallow, the body enfeebled, the system relaxed, making it susceptible to attacks of chills and fevers, rheumatisms, eruptions of the skin, and the development of the effects of the injudicious use of calomel. All this trouble may be avoided by the use of a few bottles of Dr. Tutt's Sarsaparilla and Queen's Delight. It is harmless in its effects, but a powerful enemy to diseases. Try it, and you will find it a friend in need.

Dr. Tutt's Hair Dye Acts Instantaneously.

THE BUBBLE PYRAMID.

The Radical papers keep standing the following "Grant pyramid" in their columns, by which they hope to deceive and mislead the public.

We have before shown how groundless are their boasts, and what a tremendous noise they are making over imaginary victories.

The Cincinnati Enquirer, after publishing the "Grant pyramid," as erected by the Radical press, proceeds to level it to the dust as follows:

"THE GRANT PYRAMID.

MAINE (a).
OREGON (b).
VERMONT (c).
CONNECTICUT (d).
WEST VIRGINIA (e)
RHODE ISLAND (f).
NEW HAMPSHIRE (g).
NORTH CAROLINA (h)."

(a). Maine has been carried by the Grant party with a loss of 3,400 on 125,000 votes. A corresponding loss on that vote will lose to Grant Ohio, Pennsylvania and Indiana. With this provi so it may stand at the head of the Grant pyramid.

(b). The State of Oregon has not voted since the nomination of either Presidential candidate at Philadelphia or Baltimore.

(c). Vermont was always conceded to Grant, as the Republicans there have been three to one to the Democrats for many years. Its majority, however, has been reduced.

(d). Connecticut has had no election since the Presidential contest with Grant and Greeley opened, and since the Liberal Republican party was formed.

(e.) West Virginia voted for Grant in 1868 by 9,000 majority. At her late election, the present Democratic Governor, Jacob, who is for Greeley, was chosen over another Greeley candidate, Camden. There was not a Grant candidate in the field for any State office. The new constitution, adopted by a Democratic State Convention, and opposed by the Grant party, was ratified by the people by a handsome majority. Isn't this a pretty brick to put into a Grant pyramid?

(f.) Rhode Island. The "Times and Chronicle" editor forgot that there had been no election in this State since Grant and Greeley were made the standard bearers of their respective parties. It, therefore makes, like Oregon, Connecticut and New Hampshire, a pretty thing for a purely imaginary pyramid.

(g.) New Hampshire. No election has been held here. The same remarks apply to it that we made on Rhode Island.

(h.) North Carolina. This State gave 12,000 majority for Grant. It gave the Republicans 8,000 majority last year. This year the Grant men have chosen their Governor by the trifling majority of 2,000, but the Greeley men have the Legislature, United States Senator, Congressmen and everything else. It doesn't, therefore, make a very substantial base on which to construct a Grant pyramid. Knocked out in November, as it will be, the whole structure falls, if what really belongs to it, after our deductions, is of sufficient importance to be called a structure.

THE BRIBED CONGRESSMEN AGAIN.

The Wilmington Post, a Radical sheet, after copying our editorial on the above subject, comments as follows:

"We clip the above from the Raleigh NEWS. Were it not for the fact that many people read their local papers to the exclusion of others, we should consider the above extract as simply amusing. Why, this slander has been so plainly exploded that it has been dropped by that head centre of libel, the Tribune, as unprofitable. Hon. Oakley Ames is a Republican member from Massachusetts, and there never has been a word uttered against his fair name. He comes out in a card, and testifies that he never wrote that list of names on his letter, but that they were indorsed on the back of it by another person, and without his knowledge. Now this would be a sufficient answer to this base slander upon some of our best men, but it is not all. Most of the gentlemen whose names figure on the above list, have denied the truth of the statement over their own signatures, and, to cap the climax, this "Credit Mobilier" was not organized until TWO YEARS after the last appropriation was asked for. What, then, would be the necessity of this enormous gift of stock? The Road asked nothing of these gentlemen, and so this vast fabric of slander and outrage upon as pure men as ever trod the halls of Congress falls to the ground.—But the Southern papers will keep publishing it, as they do that portion of a speech laid to Henry Wilson in regard to foreigners, which was laid to Mr. Colfax in 1868 and denied by both these gentlemen. It keeps going the rounds of the Southern press."

The above appears in the issue of the Post of the 21st inst. If the Editor of that paper will examine the New York Tribune of the very same date he will see whether or not the Tribune has dropped the Credit Mobilir "libel as unprofitable." He will see that the Tribune republishes Oakes Ames' two letters of 1868 to McComb alongside with Ames' recent letter of denial of the charge of corruption. He will also see that the Tribune renews its attacks in a lengthy editorial, in which the following language is used:

"Whatever may be said of the actual complicity of Blaine, Scofield, Wilson and other accused individuals, it is certain there was SUCH BRIBERY. And Mr. Oakes Ames, in his letters to his constituents and Col. McComb, has given the clue to the whole business.

By reading these extraordinary documents side by side, as printed in the Tribune to-day, we may see a pretty clear case, even without the memorandum of names heretofore furnished."

The Post is amused at the NEWS for referring to an "exploded libel," which even the Tribune, according to that paper, had stopped as being unprofitable! But the really amusing part of the matter is the verdancy of the Post in being amused at its own expense!

The "libel" has not only not been dropped, but conviction is daily fastening itself upon the public mind that Ames did use bribery in aid of the Pacific Railroad. The denial by the implicated Congressmen is not sufficiently explicit and thorough to disarm well grounded suspicion of their guilt.

The Post says, Mr. Ames "comes out in a card and testifies that he never wrote that list of names on his letter, but that they were endorsed on the back of it by another person and without his knowledge."

Very well; we admit that. In fact, McComb swears, in his testimony, that he wrote the list of names on Ames' letter himself. But Ames acknowledges that he wrote the letters to McComb in 1868. They are in his hand writing, on record in Court. Speaking of the stock, Ames says:

"I have assigned as far as I have given, to four from Massachusetts; one from New Hampshire; one, Delaware, one, Tennessee; one-half, Ohio, one, Indiana, one, Maine; and I have three to place, which I will put where they will do most good to us. I am here in on the spot, and can better judge where they should go."

Does Ames deny writing this letter? Not at all. The names of the individuals for whose benefit the stock was given, were endorsed in pencil by McComb, on this letter. And if the Congressmen named did not receive the stock itself, they received the profits of the investment.

Any man who will accept a bribe will, when charged with doing so, deny it. Why do not Blaine, and Wilson, and Dawes, and Boutwell say, in their denials, they never received any benefit or reward, directly or indirectly for their votes and influence in aid of the Pacific Railroad?

No one presumes they were verdant enough to own stock in the Credit Mobilier in their own names. No one presumes that they would be guilty of the folly of receiving bribes openly, or in a manner that could be readily detected.

But the country will believe that every Congressman whose name is on the Oakes Ames list, did corruptly receive some valuable consideration, until the whole matter is thoroughly sifted, and the mystery satisfactorily explained.

It is not true, as charged in the Post, that the Democratic and Liberal papers continue to publish unfounded charges against Mr. Wilson. The Tribune has denied that Wilson gave expression to the sentiments about foreigners, attributed to him, and we do not know of any Greeley paper which now re iterates the the charge. But Wilson now acknowledges he joined the Know Nothings, and took the oath of that order proscribing foreigners.

On the other hand, the Post itself is guilty of the crime it alleges against its opponents. The Tribune has denied time after time, that Mr. Greeley was the author of certain extracts against the South which the Post attributes to him and keeps standing in its columns in italics, day after day and week after week.

The last Tribune, that of the 21st, explodes the slander against Mr. Greeley which the Post stereotypes, about the Southern soldiers finding poverty at their firesides, and privation in the anxious eyes of mothers and the rags of children.

But yet the Post continues to repeat it, and then charges the Conservative papers with keeping unjust charges against the Radicals standing in their columns!

IMPERVIOUS TO ARGUMENT.

It is useless to disguise the fact that, as a class, the colored voters of the South cannot be reached by argument.

This has been demonstrated time and again since their emancipation, but never more strikingly than during the present Presidential canvass.

Persons who thought when Mr. Greeley was first nominated for President that any considerable portion of the colored vote of the South would be cast for him, now acknowledge that their opinion was erroneous.

All appeals thus far, which have been made to the colored men to support their life long friend and champion, against General Grant, a former pro-slavery Democrat, have been unavailing.

Reason and argument seem not to have the slightest influence upon their minds. Sentiment, passion and impulse appear to control them. They regard it as their sacred duty to support the Radical party—and from this purpose they will not be diverted by any array of overwhelming evidence, of startling facts, of unanswerable argument, of persuasion, entreaty or appeal.

The meeting at Metropolitan Hall in this city, on Monday night, demonstrated beyond a doubt that the colored men of this section are in still the bonds of the most abject political slavery. Mr. London's speech, which abounded in strong arguments and plain facts, did not seem to make the slightest impression on the minds of his colored hearers. For, while they paid him very respectful attention, yet when Gen. Jones arose to reply, they greeted him with shouts of applause, which were renewed frequently during the course of his speech—often at the conclusion of the most silly and absurd assertions.

The colored men will generally listen to our speakers, but that is all. They either do not believe what we tell them, or if they do believe, they cast the truth aside, and err knowingly and willfully.

After all, the chief blame does not rest upon the deluded and ignorant negroes. They are the dupes of designing and reckless white politicians. If it is wrong in them to act blindly and slavishly at the dictation of their political masters, it is far more criminal for intelligent white Radicals to mislead and deceive them.

The time is coming, perhaps—it certainly has not yet come—when the scales will fall from the eyes of the colored voters of the South—and then they will see the treachery and hypocrisy of the vile men who now control them for their votes. They will learn to trust men of virtue, integrity and character, and to despise those who, for the basest purposes of party, have held them in the claims of a servitude more detestable and galling than the slavery of the body.

DEATH OF SENATOR DAVIS.

The telegrams in yesterday's paper announced the death of Hon. Garrett Davis, Senator from Kentucky.

Mr. Davis had been in quite feeble health for some months, and his death is not altogether unexpected to his friends.

Mr. Davis had been in public life for a number of years. He had served as a member of the Kentucky Legislature, and in both branches of the United States Congress. He belonged to the old Henry Clay school of politics. He was always a strong friend of the South and was bold and outspoken in the advocacy of his political sentiments.

He died in the seventy second year of his age.

MR. LONDON'S SPEECH.

We had the pleasure of hearing Henry A. London, Jr., Esq., at Metropolitan Hall Monday night. Mr. London spoke over an hour in advocacy of Greeley, and made an excellent impression. He sustained the reputation he has made as a good speaker and able canvasser.

We did not hear Gen. Jones' reply, nor Mr. London's rejoinder. We learn that the latter achieved a handsome victory.

IF THE Radicals make the same losses in Pennsylvania and Ohio that they did in Maine and Vermont, the Liberal State ticket will be overwhelmingly elected in October.

COMMITTEEMEN who do not attend the meetings of their bodies should resign so that their places may be filled with those who will act.

A GAIN of three votes in each Township will overcome Caldwell's reported majority.

GOOD NEWS FROM PENNSYLVANIA---CURTIN SUPPORTS BUCKALEW!

It will be seen from our telegraphic dispatches, that Gov. Andrew G. Curtin has positively accepted the nomination of delegate to the Constitutional Convention, tendered him by the Liberal Republicans, and has come out squarely and unequivocally for Buckalew, the Democratic candidate for Governor.

The Radicals have all along been claiming Gov. Curtin on their side, and recently a Radical Convention in his District nominated him for Congress, but he declined to accept.

Within the last few days, we have been highly encouraged by the prospects of our cause in Pennsylvania. We have had but little doubt as to our success in that State in October, but the fact that Gov. Curtin, the most popular and influential Republican in the State, publicly opposes Hartranft, gives strong assurance that Pennsylvania will be redeemed by an overwhelming majority.

With Curtin, McLure, Moorehead and hundreds of other Liberal Republicans on the side of Greeley, the Radicals will be able to make but little headway in the Old Key-stone State.

STATE MATTERS.

THE tobacco crop in Iredell county is very fine.

THE health of Rocky Mount is improving.

CAPE FEAR river is very low and is still falling.

STATESVILLE was visited by frost last Friday morning.

CRAVEN Superior Court, Judge Clarke presiding, is in session.

ROBINSON'S circus will be in Charlotte on the 26th of November.

THERE were twenty-three police arrests in Wilmington last week.

MR. ROBT. B. POTTS died of consumption near Goldsboro last Friday.

BISHOP ATKINSON will preach at Rocky Mount on the 16th of October.

THE Mountain Messenger will commence its second volume with the next issue.

THE Democrat says the health of Charlotte has been very good up to this time.

Two hundred and ninety-eight market carts arrived in Wilmington last week.

THREE convicts were sent to New Hanover county Work House during the past week.

THE total number of interments in Wilmington during the week just passed amounted to nine.

THE Rocky Mount Mail says the colored Greeley and Brown club at that place is prospering finely.

A REVIVAL of religion has been in progress for several weeks at the Methodist Church in Charlotte.

R. P. HOWELL, Esq., of Wilmington, is to take charge of the branch bank of New Hanover, Goldsboro.

AN unsuccessful attempt was made on Sunday night to rob the store of Irvin, Foard & Bro., of Statesville.

STEPHEN BARFIELD, colored, indicted for murder, was acquitted at the late term of Wayne Superior Court.

THE Presbytery and Synod of the Associate Reformed Church met recently at Pisgah Church, Gaston county.

THE Southern Home is informed that a Marshal arrested and bound over thirteen alleged Ku Klux in Cleaveland county last week.

A NEGRO is now confined in the jail of Lincoln county for throwing a cross tie on the track of the Wilmington, Charlotte and Rutherford rail road, a few days since.

Two negroes, employed on the material train of the Petersburg and Weldon Railroad, became involved in a difficulty near Pleasant Hill, on the line of the road, when one of them stabbed the other, inflicting a dangerous wound The party is now in jail.

A CORRESPONDENT of the Norfolk Journal, writing from Louisville, thus alludes to Gov. Z. B. Vance, who recently spoke in that place:

"He was the favorite of the crowd, and some of his anecdotes will live fifty years hence. His powers of mimicry and pantomime are first class, fully equal to Beecher. He never had such an audience before, and it inspired him. But really it is a pity some portion could not have been reported. For genuine eloquence, for strength, for beauty, for power, the English language can furnish nothing superior. When his face flushed with anger, or became deadly pale with emotion, when the vast audience, hushed as the grave, watched his ascending hand, every man leaning forward to catch every word, or when he dramatized some ludicrous story to illustrate his point, or made a gesture with his foot, in any, in all attitudes he is the first orator in America. Be proud of him, ye citizens of the Old North State."

Serious Accident—A Louisiana Student Shot.

The Lynchburg News says: On Tuesday last, two youths, named Moody and Penrose, students at Bellevue high school, were out gunning in a field near Bellevue, when the gun of young Penrose accidentally exploded, the whole load striking his companion, who was but a few feet distant, in the left knee, shattering the bones, and inflicting a terrible and ghastly wound. The wounded youth was at once removed to Bellevue, and a neighboring physician summoned to attend him, and on Wednesday, Dr. W. O. Owen, of this city, was sent for, who found that amputation was necessary. The operation was accordingly performed about 11 o'clock Wednesday night, the leg being taken off about eight inches above the knee. Dr. H. G. Latham, of this city, assisted Dr. Owen in the operation.

When the physicians left Bellevue Thursday morning the wounded youth was doing well, and it is hoped will recover. These young men are both from New Orleans, and between 17 and 18 years of age. The shooting was purely accidental, and it is said that young Penrose is overwhelmed with grief at the sad casualty to his friend and bosom companion.

The Conservative Executive Committee of Virginia have determined to issue a campaign paper, which will be distributed gratuitously throughout the State.

Hon. D. G. Fowle and family returned from their Northern tour yesterday evening.

Cabarrus County Convention.

Pursuant to notice, a goodly number of the people of Cabarrus assembled in Convention at the Court House in Concord, Sept. 21, 1872. The Convention was called to order by Col. J. H. Robinson, Chairman of the County Executive Committee. Upon motion of Mr. P. B. Means, Dr. W. L. Everitt was requested to act as Secretary. Col. Robinson explained the object of the meeting, stating that it was called for the purpose of endorsing Horace Greeley and B. Gratz Brown for the Presidency and Vice Presidency of the United States, and for the purpose of electing a County Executive Committe. Upon motion of P. B. Means, a Committee of five were appointed by the Chair to draft Resolutions expressing the sentiments of the Convention. Messrs. Paul B. Means, Mathias Harris, Nathan Krimminger, Jno. C. Sossoman and Jas. Young were appointed by the Chairman.

Upon motion of R. S. Harris, Messrs. P. B. Means J. S. Fisher and W. A. Patterson were nominated and unanimously elected as County Executive Committe, with Mr. Means as Chairman.

Upon motion the County Executive Committee were empowered by the Convention to appoint Executive Committees for each and every Township, and were also authorized to call County Conventions for any all purposes, until their successors were elected.

The Committee on Resolutions returned and reported the following, which were unanimously adopted:

WHEREAS, We consider Gen. Grant incapable and unworthy of the Chief Magistracy of the nation, and actuated in his administration with the sole motive of perpetuating his power regardless of the interests of American citizens. Be it, therefore,

Resolved, That we endorse and pledge our support to Horace Greeley and B. Gratz Brown for the Presidency and Vice-Presidency of these United States; believing that under their administration and the guidance of wise statesmanship, a new era of peace, prosperity and harmony will dawn upon the American people.

A few well-timed and sensible remarks were then made by Maj. W. J. Montgomery, urging the people to organize and work, which we feel assured they will do, and under the guidance of our efficient County Executive Committee, Old Cabarrus will speak in louder tones in November than she did in October last.

On motion the Secretary was requested to forward copies of the proceedings of this Convention to the Raleigh NEWS and Sentinel, Southern Home and Charlotte Democrat.

Upon motion the Convention adjourned.

Degrading a French Officer.

A painful ceremony, and one unworthy the brave and generous French people, has been carried out at the Ecole Militaire, in Paris, the same being the degradation of Cerfbeer, an army officer. This gentleman's only fault was that he was a Bonapartist, and acted in the interests of the Empire as long as he acted at all during the recent severe struggle. He was wealthy, well married, brave, and a prize man of the French Academy. When war was declared he was ordered to Phalsbourg, and bore himself gallantly until he heard of the fall of the Empire and the battles of Metz and Sedan. Looking upon the situation as hopeless, he took advantage of negotiations to remain a prisoner within the German lines. When the conflict was over he was tried and condemned to death for desertion. President Thiers commuted the sentence to banishment for ten years, but insisted upon his military degradation. Six regiments were drawn up in a hollow square, and Cerfbeer, a tall, stalwart, and handsome blonde, was placed in the centre, with the colonel, who acted as master of ceremonies, in front of him. A non-commissioned officer tore off the golden badge of rank from the officer's shoulder, and the adjutant read the sentence of court-martial ordering degradation. The colonel declared its provisions, and Cerfbeer was walked in front of the soldiers present and then conducted by the police to the Belgian frontier.—Exchange.

THE NEWFOUNDLAND FISHERIES.—During 1871 the catch of fish by the people of Newfoundland and Labrador amounted in value to $10,500,000, and the exports of fish products amounted in value to $8,154,206. The exports from Newfoundland consisted of 1,328,726 hundred weight of dried cod, 5,238 tons of cod oil, 537,094 seal skins, 3,977 tierces of salmon, and 187,429 barrels of herring. The imports in Newfoundland during 1871 amounted in value to $6,039,227. The catch of fish by the people of Nova Scotia in 1871 amounted in value to $4,019,424, and New Brunswick exported products valued at $5,303,306.

The Meteorological records of the Pennsylvania Hospital, at Philadelphia, which go back to 1790, show that the summer which has just closed with the month of August, has been the hottest ever known in the history of the city. Taken together we find an average mean temperature, for the three summer months, of 79.68 degrees, which is three-quarters of a degree above the figures for the summer of 1870, which heretofore enjoyed the distinction of being the hottest known in Philadelphia.

Miss Slidell, the youngest daughter of the late John Slidell, was married on Saturday, the 7th instant, to Baron Pfeiffer, Lucerne, Switzerland, at the home of her brother in-law, Baron Erlanger, Boulogne, Sur Seine. The witnesses were Messrs. Drouyn De L'Huys and Francis P. Corbin. Among the guests at the dejeuner were the Papal Nuncio, Mr. Washburne, Prince De Polignac, etc.

Two or three weeks ago the creek under the great Natural Bridge in Virginia suddenly disappeared. On instituting an investigation, the stream was found pouring into the earth through a number of newly-made fissures, having found some unknown channel beneath.

At a grand Liberal meeting at Brooklyn, N. Y., last Thursday night, nearly 40,000 people were assembled, and three open air meetings were in progress at the same time.

Two young Italians recently went inside the crater of Vesuvius, the first attempt of the kind which has been made since the eruption.

The quality of the cotton produced in Sumter and Marion counties, Fla., is said to be superior to any since the war.

Hoboken has an association to protect its members against exhorbitant assessments.

It has come to light that the recent Indiana Convention of "Straight outs" numbered only fifteen persons.

SPECIAL FEATURES AND ADVANTAGES.

1st. No restriction on Residence or Travel.

2d. No extra charge on lives of Females.

3d. Policies incontestable after Five Years

4th. The rates of Interest on the Funds of the Company are higher than those on the Funds of Companies located in other States, thus insuring larger Dividends to Policy Holders.

5th. The Directors and Officers of the Company are prominent NORTH CAROLINIANS, who are KNOWN to be men of INTEGRITY and WORTH.

6th. The Company is established on a solid and permanent basis, steps having been taken to increase the Capital Stock to $500,000.

7th. ALL THE FUNDS OF THE COMPANY ARE INVESTED IN THIS STATE AND CIRCULATED AMONG OUR OWN PEOPLE. This fact should commend the Company, above all others, to North Carolinians. It is well known that hundreds of tuousands of Dollars in Life Premenms are annually sent North to enrich Northern Capitalists, thus continually draining our people of immense amounts which should be kept at home. On this ground the friends of this Company confidently appeal to every son of the Old North State, and ask their support for this HOME INSTITUTION, which, while it offers substantially all the advantages of Northern Companies, helps to build up HOME INTERESTS.

UNION SHUTTLE SEWING MACHINE.

AGENTS WANTED

In every county in North and South Carolina. Unparralleled inducements offered to Agents, larger commissions being paid than is done by any other Company.

This Machine is particularly adapted to those persons who are unable to purchase one of higher priced Machines, the prices ranging from $25 to $55. The UNION SHUTTLE is the only low-priced Lock-Stitch Machine that has any claim of merit in it. It stands without a rival for its durability, strength and firmness of finish, making, at a low price, a Sewing Machine equal to the highest priced ones, and, in some respects, superior to them all.

"IDLE WILD"

FOR SALE

—AT—

AUCTION!

That Splendid property, on Newbern avenue, in the city of Raleigh, known as

"IDLEWILD,"

(The former residence of the late John Cotton), is offered for sale.

The dwelling is the largest and most perfect private residence in the city, containing fifteen rooms, as follows: One 32x22; five 22x22; seven 20x20; two 15x12, and two large halls; a passage way 48 feet by 10. The house is two stories, with dressed rock basement, upper and lower porches with large columns on each side. All the necessary out-houses, stables, carriage house, &c., &c., are on the premises.

The lot contains about three acres including a large garden with the most magnificent oak grove surrounding the residence to be found in the State; a most beautiful and sloping lawn of ample depth and width fronts the dwelling. This property is the most desirable in the city—situated on an elevation of some fifty feet above the Capitol; the healthiest and most attractive and growing part of the city; the grounds, fences, residence and out-buildings are in the most perfect order—not one dollar is required to be spent on same.

The above valuable property will be offered for sale at the Court House door in Raleigh, on Wednesday, October 16th, at 12 o'clock. Terms easy.

N. B.—This property has been highly recommended for a Boys' Civil or Military School; an institution of both kinds sadly needed at this point.

VALUABLE LAND FOR SALE

IN THE

COUNTY OF WARREN.

I offer for sale, five hundred and two (502) acres of land, situated in the county of Warren, on Shocco Creek, adjoining the Sulphur Springs. Tract of Col. J. M. Heck, on both sides of the Turnpike Road, leading from the Sulphur Springs to the flourishing Town of Ridgeway, on the Raleigh & Gaston Railroad, and nine miles from the latter place. There is an Overseer's house, three cabins, corn-crib and stables on the premises. About one-fourth (¼) of the tract is in original growth of oak, hickory, &c., one-fifth in second growth pines. The soil is sandy, loam and chocolate-surface undulating—well watered, and about 80 acres of rich bottom land. It yields excellent crops of corn, tobacco, wheat, oats, clover, &c. This is one of the best tracts of land in this section, and will be sold on reasonable terms.

Dr. George Fields, who resides near the land, will take pleasure in showing it to persons wishing to examine it, and is authorized to negotiate for its sale.

WEDNESDAY.....SEPTEMBER 25, 1872.

THOSE FOOTSTEPS.

In the quiet hush of the tender night,
When my eyes fill up with tears,
Comes my darling to me, all golden bright
With the sunshine of three sweet years.

And he smiles as he climbs to his seat on my knee,
To whisper his childish mirth;
Then clasps my neck—though you may not see,
For my darling is not of earth.

Only within the twilight gloom,
When the hours are long and sweet,
I hear all about in the lonely room
The patter of little feet.

The patter of feet that come and go
With sweet yet restless will,
Just as they did a month ago
Ere they grew forever still.

And my heart, at those spirit sounds that seem
So near, yet so far away,
Glides into the faith of a sweet love dream,
That follows me night and day.

And this love dream, tender and ever sweet,
Still whispers soft and low—
"Keep thou in thy heart these tiny feet,
And follow the way they go"

Then my sorrow sinks down as a leaflet will
When the winds are into their rest;
And I bow with revered air, and still
The footsteps are in my breast.
